1. Vision & Ethos

Tower Seekers is an online competitive turn-based tactical battler built around JRPG class archetypes and deep unit customization. Two players each bring a roster of 6 units, draft 4 into battle after seeing each other's picks, place them on a 4×4 grid, and resolve simultaneous action selections in speed order — creating a competitive experience that rewards preparation, reads, and in-battle adaptation.

The game draws from a deep well of inspiration:

- Octopath Traveler — HD-2D visual direction: pixel-art characters on richly lit, dimensional environments
- Final Fantasy — Class archetypes (Knight, Paladin, Dragoon/Lancer, Mage, Bard, etc.), iconic abilities like Dragoon Jump
- Slay the Spire — Roguelike tower PvE structure: risk/reward decisions, run variety, incremental power
- Darkest Dungeon — Roster tension, unit vulnerability, the weight of losing a unit in a run
- Clash Royale — Quick competitive sessions, counterpick-driven meta, roster building at the core of the experience

The ethos of Tower Seekers is that every decision matters. Skill picks, passive choices, unit placement, and action selection all feed into a layered system where knowledge of your opponent's kit is as important as knowing your own. There are no filler choices — every slot in a party, every skill in a loadout, is meaningful.

2. Core Rules & Mechanics

THE GRID

- Each player controls one 4×4 grid. The two grids face each other.
- Players bring 6 units to a match and pick 4 after seeing the opponent's full roster (draft phase).
- Picked units are placed on the player's own grid before combat begins.
- No unit may remain in the enemy grid. Any move that sends a unit into the enemy grid must return that unit to their own side at the end of the action.

ACTION MENU ORDER

When a unit's turn is active, the action menu is presented in this order:

Move → Attack → Defend → Wait → Skill

AP ECONOMY

Rule	Value
Starting AP per turn	3
AP cap (carry-over)	10
On-hit AP gain (base attack)	+2
Defend action	40% damage reduction; 0 AP generated
Wait action	+2 AP banked for next turn
Move cost	1 AP per tile

BASE ATTACK

- Base power: 20
- Scales off the unit's Primary Stat
- Default accuracy: 110% (standard single-target)

- Landing a base attack triggers the standard +2 AP on-hit rule.

ATTACK STYLES & GRID GEOMETRY

The two 4×4 grids are directly adjacent with no gap. The full combat space is effectively 4×8. Range is measured in Manhattan distance (no diagonals). Units always end their turn in their own grid.

Style	Range	Blocking
Melee	4 tiles (Manhattan)	Expanding cone shadow — a line is drawn from attacker to target; any unit on that path casts a shadow that widens ±1 row per column of depth behind it.
Ranged-Direct	8 tiles (Manhattan)	Straight-line only — any unit on the direct path between attacker and target blocks the shot.
Ranged-Volley	6 tiles (Manhattan)	None — arc projectile; always lands on the selected target tile if in range.

DAMAGE FORMULA

$$Damage = ((2 \times Level / 5 + 2) \times Power \times Attacker_Stat / Defender_Stat / 50 + 2) \times Modifiers$$

- Tournament standard level: 11. All stats are calibrated for level 11 units.
- Max level in-game: 16 (subject to change).
- Attacker_Stat = PhysAtk (Physical moves) or MagAtk (Magical moves)
- Defender_Stat = PhysDef (Physical moves) or MagDef (Magical moves)

ACCURACY & EVASION

Formula: Hit Chance = Move Accuracy% – Defender Evasion% (minimum 5%, maximum 100%)

Move Category	Accuracy
Standard single-target	110%
Powerful single-target	105%
AoE	90%
Very accurate (e.g. Sniper Shot)	130%

Move Category	Accuracy
Unreliable / high-reward	95%

TURN RESOLUTION

- All players select actions simultaneously.
- Actions resolve in Speed order (highest Speed acts first).
- Ties in Speed are resolved by a 50/50 coin toss, determined randomly at the moment of resolution.

STATUS EFFECTS

Status	Effect
Poison	Deals a % of max HP damage per turn (amount varies by move)
Paralysis	50% chance each turn to be unable to act; Speed reduced by 25%
Sleep	Unit skips their action for the turn
Root	Unit cannot move but can still act
Armor Break	-25% PhysDef for a duration
Slow	Movement costs double AP

CRITICAL HITS

Crits are not passive random chance. They are triggered by specific skill mechanics and conditions — e.g. Wanderer combo chains, Feint setup, Archer's Sharpshooter stacks. When a crit is triggered, it deals additional damage as defined by the triggering skill.

8. Future PvE — The Tower

The Tower is the PvE roguelike mode. Players select a party and attempt to clear a series of escalating wave fights, making decisions between waves that shape the run.

CORE STRUCTURE

- Wave fights: each floor contains one or more enemy waves
- Enemy intent telegraphs: enemies broadcast their intended actions; a scan mechanic can reveal hidden intents that aren't shown by default
- Run decisions: choose routes, rewards, and risk levels between waves

PROGRESSION SYSTEMS

- Mastery XP: each unit earns XP tied to their class, unlocking rewards over time
- Augments: units can gain run-specific augments (temporary power-ups) during a Tower run
- Item slots: units can equip items found or purchased during a run

DIFFICULTY TIERS

- 3 towers at Alpha launch (Apprentice, Adept, Master — naming TBD)
- 5 towers at Beta
- Solo towers: single-unit runs, class-specific; completing one unlocks a new class
- Duo co-op towers at Full Release
